The Corporation has been organized as a not-for-profit corporation organized under Delaware law to operate within the meaning of Section 501(c)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The Corporation exists to improve customer satisfaction primarily in the technology industry worldwide by fostering continuous improvement in problem resolution for the mutual customers of Member (as defined below) companies and to contribute to the growth of the multi-vendor technology market. However, expectations are to address other industries as the organization grows. This is accomplished by:

- (a) Reducing the time of resolution for multi-vendor system problems thereby reducing costs for both the customer and Member through:
- Eliminating finger-pointing between support organizations via adherence to the Code of Conduct, as published from time to time by the Corporation, and any other Relationship Addenda, codes, policies and guidelines.
 - Exchange of pertinent information to isolate and solve mutual customer issues, with guidelines for confidentiality.

- (b) Strengthening support service offerings to Members.
- (c) Validating the multi-vendor environment and building customer confidence through:
 - Advocating for technical support alliances (“TSAs”) in the marketplace.
 - Setting and managing customer and Member expectations.
 - Reporting results.
 - Evaluating performance.
 - Proposing and evaluating activities.
- (d) Establishing professional support practices and common measurements between support organizations through:
 - Setting response times.
 - Providing benchmarks for escalation procedures.
 - Facilitating communication among support organizations.
 - Facilitating customer communication.
- (e) Establishing and maintaining a common definition for a “Technical Support Alliance” through:
 - Defining common operational characteristics.
 - Fostering common membership criteria.
- (f) Reducing costs for formation of new TSANet Relationship offerings and attracting new Members to existing TSANet offerings.
- (g) Enabling the industry to serve the new paradigm of emergent support practices required of global and international organizations by:
 - Creating means for creating and facilitating International and-Multi-vendor Support to common customers
 - Developing programs of education and training facilitating International and Global Support.
 - Providing opportunities for the development and presentation of new programs to respond to the ever-changing demand for International and Global products and services.

- Communicating common industry practices to regional markets in which Members may operate.
- Responding to the identification of new product offerings and services by Membership requiring mutual customer support.

The Corporation supports the policy of competition served by antitrust and competition laws, uncompromisingly intends to comply with such laws, and commits to not taking actions that would restrain competition among and between its Members in violation of such laws.

ARTICLE III MEMBERSHIP

The Corporation shall have Members. General Members, Limited Members and Affiliated Members are generally referred to in these Bylaws as “Members.” All Members agree to abide by all applicable policies and procedures, including the applicable Code of Conduct and Addenda or guidelines applicable to any Relationship (defined below) or other membership offering of the corporation in which they participate. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each Member agrees to conform its activities to such policies, Addenda and guidelines as the Corporation may adopt or amend from time to time to comply with applicable antitrust and competition laws. The qualifications, obligations, rights and privileges of Members shall be as follows:

Section 3.01. General Members.

(a) General Qualifications. Businesses in the industry which provide multi-vendor mutual customer support are eligible to apply for membership in Corporation as “General Members.” To become a General Member of the Corporation a company must qualify for membership and be accepted into the Corporation. To commence the applications process, a prospective member must complete and submit an application to the President’s office. In such application, the applicant shall agree to abide by the provisions of these Bylaws, the Code of Conduct, and all applicable guidelines, policies and procedures. The application will be reviewed by the Membership Committee to determine if the company applying meets the requirements for Membership. Upon completion of the Board’s evaluation of the prospective member’s qualifications, and satisfaction of the incidents of membership, the prospective member will be informed of acceptance or denial of its application. If the application is denied, the Corporation shall not be required to inform the prospective member of the reasons for denial. Upon the Corporation’s acceptance of a General Member, such General Member will further join into one or more appropriate Member relationships (each a “Relationship” or collectively “Relationships”) depending on the services they wish to provide to other Members and their qualifications for participating in a defined Community. Participation in a Relationship shall be subject to any limitations or requirements as set forward in each addendum to the Code of Conduct (“Addenda” whether one or more) applicable to each Relationship to which Member agrees to be a participant.

Each General Member shall be a company duly qualified, and in good standing in such General Member's state of incorporation, if in the United States, or in the state, province or other political subdivision of the country of formation, as the case may be. Such General Member shall be duly authorized to transact the business and activities of a General Member in the Corporation through appropriate corporate action, and shall assume the duties and responsibilities of a General Member under these Bylaws, the Code of Conduct, Addenda, Relationship guidelines or policies applicable to any membership offerings, and TSANet procedures which are or may be adopted from time to time, as amended. Each General Member shall, as a part of the application, represent to the Corporation that it satisfies these membership criteria and any prerequisites to participate in each TSANet membership or group offering.

Section 3.02. Limited & Affiliated Members.

(a) General Qualifications. Users of the Corporation's services who do not otherwise qualify as General Members may apply for membership in the Corporation as "Limited" or "Affiliated" Members." Limited or Affiliated Members are limited in the services received and are non-voting members. Limited or Affiliated Members are hosted or sponsored into a relationship by a General Member and agree to participate within TSANet by joining into one or more appropriate Relationships that may be hosted by a sponsoring Member by agreeing to the specific Addenda applicable to the Relationship or Relationships in which Member participates, depending on the benefits they are capable of demonstrating that they have the capability to provide to participants in the hosted Relationship. The Limited or Affiliated Member shall also be required, as a condition of participation, to provide their qualifications for participating in a defined Relationship, which shall be subject to evaluation and approval by TSANet's President. Limited or Affiliated Members agree to abide by the provisions these Bylaws, TSANet guidelines, policies and procedures, including the Code of Conduct, Addenda specific to Relationships, and any guidelines applicable to a Relationship ("Relationship Guidelines") in which they participate.

Each Limited or Affiliated Member shall be a company duly qualified, and in good standing in such Limited or Affiliated Member's state of incorporation. Such Member shall be duly authorized to transact the business and activities of a Member in the Corporation through appropriate corporate action, and shall assume the duties and responsibilities of a Limited or Affiliated Member under these Bylaws, the applicable Code of Conduct and any related Addenda, TSANet guidelines, policies and procedures. Each Limited or Affiliated Member shall, as a part of the application, represent to the Corporation or the host of the relationship that it satisfies these membership criteria. In addition to the qualifications described in this sub-section above, a Limited or Affiliated Member shall satisfy the following criteria established for limited participation in the Relationship(s) described in Section 3.01(b) above, as may be amended by the General Members or the Board from time to time.

(1) Agree to adhere to and be bound by the applicable Code of Conduct and any Addenda applicable to each relationship in which Limited Member participates.

(2) Pay an annual Member fee or have the hosting company pay the annual Limited Member fee.

(3) Participate in a Relationship in conformity with the applicable Code of Conduct, any Relationship Addenda applicable to specific Relationships, and any Relationship Guidelines, or TSANet policies and procedures.

(b) Privileges of Limited or Affiliated Members. Privileges of Limited or Affiliated Members shall be defined in the Code of Conduct and/or Memorandum of Understanding (“MOU”) between the Limited or Affiliated Member and its General Member hosting company. Each hosting General Member agrees that it shall not grant any rights which conflict with or contravene the limitations upon other Members imposed by these Bylaws, the Code of Conduct, Relationship Addenda, or any TSANet policies and procedures applicable to the Relationship(s) and in no event shall any sponsored or hosted Member take any act, or engage in any conduct which violates applicable laws.

Should the Code of Conduct or MOU for a specific Relationship not address privileges of Limited or Affiliated Members, then the following specific privileges are the default:

(1) Limited or Affiliated Members are not allowed voting powers outside specific relationship criteria as approved by the hosting General Member.

(2) Limited or Affiliated Members are not allowed to chair or participate in committees and/or projects unless approved by the Board.

(3) Limited or Affiliated Members are not allowed to participate in events unless approved by the Board.

(4) Limited or Affiliated Members are neither allowed to market TSANet Services nor allowed use of the TSANet Trademark. However, members may be allowed the use of a Member Trademark in conformity with the Trademark Usage Guidelines.

(5) Limited or Affiliated Members are not allowed to vote in Board elections.

(6) Limited or Affiliated Members are not allowed to vote on matters presented for consideration or approval to the Corporation’s General Membership for vote.

(c) How Limited and Affiliated members Differ.

(1) Limited Members – Limited Members are hosted by a General Member and participate in one-to-one relationships. Each relationship is Customized by the host and participants adopt a specific relationship developed by the host company.

(2) Affiliated Members – Affiliated Members join an existing Open Group relationship and are sponsored by a General Member. The affiliated member operates under the terms of the Open Group relationship but only with the sponsoring member.

Section 3.03. Pricing of Member Services.

The pricing of Member services including annual dues and associated fees will be approved by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Board and published in a pricing manual made available to the Members. Such manual may be in writing or in electronic format, posted on the TSANet website. TSANet staff personnel will notify Members of changes via written or electronic correspondence within ninety (90) days of approval.

Section 3.04. Resignation.

Upon ninety (90) days prior written notice to the Board, any Member may withdraw from Membership and/or participation in the Corporation or any Relationship. All financial obligations to the Corporation incurred due to Membership and/or participation shall be or become due and shall be paid from the Member to TSANet at the time of resignation. No portion of the Member's annual dues shall be refunded upon resignation. Resignation shall not discharge the withdrawing Member from any responsibilities incurred by such Member arising from its membership in the Corporation prior to the later of receipt of i) notice of, or ii) the effective date of, such resignation.

Section 3.05. Suspension or Termination of Membership.

(a) General Members. The Board shall have the power, by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Board, to suspend a General Member for a period of time or to terminate membership of any Member for good cause. Good cause ("Cause") may consist of, but is not be limited to: violation of these Bylaws, failure to comply with the provisions of any Code of Conduct applicable to such General Member, or conduct that the Board in its sole discretion, deems detrimental to the best interest of the Corporation. For any Cause other than nonpayment of dues, a vote for removal of a General Member shall occur only after the General Member complained against has been advised of the complaint and given reasonable opportunity to be heard. Termination or suspension shall not relieve the General Member of any financial responsibility incurred to the Corporation prior to the date of such termination or suspension, and the obligations of any suspended General Member shall be continuing during any period of suspension through the date of termination or reinstatement. The Board may publish a notification of any and all disciplinary actions in the manner and time the Board deems appropriate.

(b) Limited or Affiliated Members. The Board shall have the power, upon a majority vote of the Board to terminate the membership or participation of any Limited Member or Affiliated at any time with Cause. For any Cause other than nonpayment of dues, a vote for removal of a Limited or Affiliated Member shall occur only after the Limited or Affiliated Member which has been complained against and the hosting General Member (if applicable) have been advised of the complaint. The President shall have the right, but not the obligation to give the hosting General Member (if applicable) and the Limited or Affiliated Member which has been complained against a reasonable opportunity to respond to the complaint. Once the complaint has been heard, the President shall decide if the Limited or Affiliated Member shall be removed unless the Board, by two-thirds (2/3) vote determines, in its discretion, to reconsider the President's determination de novo. Termination or suspension shall not relieve the Limited or Affiliated Member of any financial responsibility incurred to the hosting General Member or to the Corporation in connection with the conduct giving rise to such termination or suspension, nor shall termination or suspension relieve the Limited or Affiliated Member from any financial obligations to the hosting General Member or the Corporation arising prior to the date of such termination or suspension. The obligations of any suspended Limited or Affiliated Member shall be continued during any period of suspension through the date of termination or reinstatement. The Board may publish a notification of any and all disciplinary actions in the manner and time the Board deems appropriate.

Section 3.06. Suspension or Termination from a Group Relationship.

Unless specified in the Addendum, the Board shall have the power to suspend and recommend termination or reinstatement of any Member of the Relationship to the Board. The Member complained against shall be advised of the complaint, and will be given a reasonable opportunity to be heard in the manner consistent with Section 3.05. The Members of the Relationship may publish notification of any and all disciplinary actions in the manner and time they deem appropriate, so long as in compliance with applicable laws, that a copy of such notice is provided in advance to the President, and that the President has not responded by requesting changes or modifications within five (5) days thereafter. The Host or Sponsor of a Group Relationship, whether one or more, may discipline, suspend or terminate members of a Group Relationship in the manner provided by Addendum, policy, procedure or guidelines applicable to such Relationship.

Section 3.07. Reinstatement.

The Board shall have the power, by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Board, to re-admit companies who have had membership suspended or terminated for any reason other than non-payment of dues. Former Members may reapply for membership in writing when the cause of suspension or termination has been corrected. The Board may, in its sole discretion, investigate if such cause has been corrected. If, upon such inquiry, the Board determines the former Member to be in compliance, the Board may, by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Board, reinstate that Member to full membership.

Section 3.08. Default on Dues and Termination of Membership.

Any Member in default in payment of dues for a period of sixty (60) days shall be notified of such delinquency and of suspension from membership. At the Board's discretion, some or all membership privileges and benefits will not be available while a Member is under suspension.

A Member whose membership is suspended for failure to pay dues may be reinstated if the dues are paid within one (1) year of the due date without formal review of a new application, provided the member otherwise meets the qualifications for participation as a Member in the Corporation. After one (1) year, a suspended Member's membership shall automatically terminate and such former member must submit a new application, and be accepted into membership through the application and review process.

Section 3.09. Relationships.

New Relationships may be formed, and previously established Relationships dissolved, modified or terminated, and policies, procedures and guidelines adopted or revised, if the Board deems it appropriate. Unless otherwise specified by Addendum, Relationships may be modified, altered or repealed by a majority of the Members participating in the relationship.

Section 3.10. Code of Conduct.

The Board, by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the Directors present at any Regular or Special Meeting duly held in accordance with these Bylaws, shall adopt one or more Code(s) of Conduct to govern Member relationships within any Relationship authorized by these Bylaws, and all Members, as a condition of participation in the Corporation, agree and covenant to be bound thereby. Each Code of Conduct so adopted may be modified, altered, or repealed (each a "Code Modification") from time to time by a majority vote of the Board of Directors, or by Host of a Custom Group, or by a majority vote of a non-Hosted Custom group via Addendum. In the event of a tie vote by the Board of Directors regarding any such Code Modification, the President shall be permitted to cast the deciding vote. Notice of a Code Modification shall be provided to the members in a relationship governed by Code or Addendum affected by such modification (each an "Affected Member"). Any Code Modification will be effective upon ninety (90) days notice for Open Groups and notice as mutually agreed for non-hosted Custom Groups. Affected Member may either i) continue in membership and participation in TSANet under the terms as so amended or modified, or ii) notify the TSANet President within thirty (30) days of Member's election to terminate its membership in TSANet, or its participation in the relationship which has changed as a result of the Code Modification.

Section 3.11. Modifications and Notice of Changes to Codes and Addenda.

As between Affected Members to a relationship Addendum with the exclusion of Open Group Relationships, such members may agree by Addendum to limit or extend the protections respecting confidentiality afforded each member which is a party to that Addendum. No Member shall have the right to make unilateral changes to a Code or Addendum, unless such change follows the process for modification or amendment specified in such Code or Addendum. This shall not, however, limit the authority of the designated Host(s) of a relationship to modify or amend the Code or Addendum applicable to such relationship upon notice of such change to each Affected Member in the manner provided in Section 3.10. No Member shall otherwise change or modify the confidentiality provisions by Code or Addendum in a manner which diminishes the protection of confidentiality of information or data of another member of TSANet which is not a party to the applicable Addendum.

ARTICLE IV
MEETINGS OF MEMBERS

Section 4.01. Annual Business Meeting.

The Corporation shall hold an Annual Membership Meeting which shall be open to all General Members, Limited Members and invitees of the Corporation. The details and date(s) of the meeting shall be determined by the Board. The Board shall announce to the General Members the date and details of the Annual Business Meeting by notice given in accordance with Section 4.02 of these Bylaws. If the Annual Meeting is canceled, it must be rescheduled by notice given within thirty (30) days after notice of the cancellation, and conforming with Section 4.02.

Section 4.02. Notice of Meetings.

Written notice of membership meetings of the Corporation where official business of the Corporation is to be transacted shall be mailed (including mail by electronic device) to each General Member not less than thirty (30) days before the date of the meeting, except as set forth in Sections 4.01, 4.03 and 4.04.

Section 4.03. Special Membership Meetings.

Special Membership Meetings may be called by the Board at any time or in conjunction with the Annual Business Meeting. Such Special Membership Meetings may be called for by the General Members as a whole or the General Members specific to any Relationship authorized under these Bylaws. Upon receipt of a written request for a Special Membership Meeting by more than ten percent (10%) of the General Members, the Chairperson of the Board shall, within a reasonable time of the receipt of the request, call a Special Membership Meeting. The General Members shall receive not less than ten (10) days notice of such Special Membership Meeting by mail (including mail by electronic device).

Section 4.04. Voting.

The Board may submit matters of business to the General Members for voting by mail, in person, electronic device or other means designated by the Board. At least fifty-one percent (51%) of the General Members are required to vote to constitute a quorum at all meetings of the General Members. Except as otherwise provided by law, if at least fifty-one percent (51%) of the General Members cast a vote, then a majority vote of the General Members casting a vote shall be required for the matter to pass.

Section 4.05. Proxy.

Each General Member may, in addition to any means provided in Section 4.04, vote by proxy, provided that prior to exercising a Member's right to vote by proxy under this Section 4.05, such Member shall have advised the Board Chairman or the President of the Corporation in writing of the Member's election to exercise the right to vote by Proxy, and provided further that such writing i) be received by the Board Chairman or the President more than twenty four (24) hours prior to the time designated for a vote on such matter and is not revoked prior to such time; ii) makes reference to the matter to be voted upon, and iii) identifies the party to whom the right to vote by exercise of the proxy is given. No general proxy shall be given for other than a specific purpose, and the Corporation, its President and Board shall in all events be entitled to rely on the writing so received.

ARTICLE V

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 5.01. Powers.

The affairs of the Corporation shall be governed by the Board and the Executive Committee as provided herein. The initial members of the Board named in the Corporation's Articles of Incorporation shall serve for their designated term. Thereafter the initial members of the Board shall resign, and the Board shall be comprised of natural persons who are designated to serve on behalf of the General Member holding such Board seat by virtue of these Bylaws (each such member of the Board, a "Director"). While a General Member has the right to designate a Director to serve on the Board, such General Member must allow such Director discretion to make reasonable business decisions on behalf of the Corporation without General Member approval. The Board shall have the following powers:

- (a) Govern, direct and control the affairs of the Corporation, including, but not limited to, its committees, meetings, events and publications.
- (b) Determine the policies and procedures to be used by the Corporation and any changes thereto and make such rules and regulations as they deem proper.

Section 5.02. Board of Director Qualifications.

Each General Member shall perform its responsibilities of Board participation through a Director who is a natural person, duly authorized and designated by the General Member to perform such duties and responsibilities. A prospective Director must meet the following criteria before considered for election as a member of the Board of Directors:

(a) The Director/Member Company must maintain membership in all three TSANet regions (Americas, EMEA, APAC)

(b) Hold a prominent position and have a prior commitment from the General Member to permit such natural person for the period of such Board participation, to devote such time as may be reasonably required to direct the affairs of the Corporation's business, and its membership activities

(c) Have discretion to make reasonable business decisions and direct TSANet programs on a global scale on behalf of the Corporation without such General Member approval.

(d) Have a good understanding of the Corporation and its activities.

(e) Promote the use of the Corporation and its activities within their organization.

(f) Actively participate and attend business meetings and conference calls of the organization.

Section 5.03. Number and Qualifications of Directors.

Following the expiration of the terms of the members of the initial Board, the authorized number of Directors of the Corporation shall be eleven (11); provided however that the President shall at all times serve as an ex officio member of the Board of Directors, an additional member of the Board. The ex officio member shall be a non-voting member except as otherwise provided herein.

The Board may choose to change the number of Directors as provided below, but the Board shall not be comprised of less than three (3) nor more than fifteen (15) without the 2/3 majority vote of all sitting Directors. Notwithstanding these criteria, the Corporation shall endeavor to never have less than nine (9) members.

A two-thirds (2/3) majority of the Board can vote to increase the number of Directors on the Board and may change the composition of the geographical representation thereof. In addition, the Board may in its discretion declare a vacancy if Member's operations change region, or in the event of the death, disability or separation from service of the Member's natural person serving as the Board's representative. In such event, the Executive Committee shall nominate and appoint a successor.

Section 5.04. Executive Committee.

The affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by an Executive Committee of the Board comprised of five (5) Members who meet the qualifications for Executive Committee membership. The Executive Committee shall be constituted and authorized as provided in Section 8.03.

Section 5.05. Term and Office.

Each Director shall serve a three (3) year term from the date of his or her election. A Director can be re-nominated for an additional two 3-year terms as long as the Candidate meets election requirements under Section 5.10.

Section 5.06. Multiple Representatives Prohibited.

A General Member shall have the right to be represented by no more than one (1) Director occupying a seat on the Board at any time. In the case of an acquisition, merger or other reorganization (a "Qualifying Event") occurring between two (2) or more Members each represented on the Board, the surviving entity shall have the right and obligation prior to the effective date of the Qualifying Event to designate one (1), but only one (1) natural person to serve as a Director on the Board following such Qualifying Event for the combined Member. The surviving Member company shall designate which one (1) of the Board representatives shall continue to represent the surviving Member following the Qualifying Event. If such Member does not so designate its representative prior to the effective date of the Qualifying Event, then the Director(s) of the predecessor Member(s) shall be subject to removal by the majority vote of the remaining Directors. In the alternative, prior to the effective date of the Qualifying Event, the surviving General Member company may determine that one (1) natural person holding an acquired General Member(s) Board of Directors seat shall continue to represent the combined entity that is the survivor, in which instance the natural person shall relinquish its existing board position. Thereafter, the acquired or merged General Member's representative on the Board may complete the term to which he or she was elected. If the merged General Member's representative does not remain on the Board after the consummation of the merger, the remaining seat on the Board shall immediately deemed to be vacated, and such vacancy shall be filled as provided in Section 5.11. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful.

Section 5.16. Authority to Indemnify Directors; Derivative Actions.

The Corporation shall indemnify any Director or ex officio member of the Board who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he or she is or was an authorized representative of the Corporation, against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit if he or she acted in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Corporation and except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the Corporation or in connection with any other proceeding charging that such person derived an improper personal benefit, whether or not involving action in an official capacity, in which such person was adjudged liable on the basis that he or she derived an improper personal benefit.

Section 5.17. Employees and Agents.

To the extent that an authorized representative of the Corporation who neither was nor is a Director or officer of the Corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in Sections 5.15 and 5.16 above or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he or she may be indemnified by the Corporation against expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection therewith. Such an authorized representative may, at the discretion of the Board, be indemnified by the Corporation in any other circumstances to any extent the Corporation would be required by Sections 5.15 and 5.16 above to indemnify such person in such circumstances to such extent if he or she were or had been a Director or officer of the corporation.

Section 5.18. Procedure for Effecting Indemnification.

Indemnification under Sections 5.15, 5.16, or 5.17 above may be made when ordered by a court or shall be made in a specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the authorized representative is required or proper in the circumstances because he or she has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Sections 5.15 or 5.16 above. Such determination shall be made by the Board by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of Directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding.

If a claim under Sections 5.15, 5.16 or 5.17 is accepted by the Corporation but not thereafter paid in full by the Corporation within ninety (90) days after such determination by the Corporation, the claimant may at any time thereafter bring suit against the Corporation to recover the unpaid amount of the claim. It shall be a defense to any such action (other than an action brought to enforce a claim for expenses incurred in defending any action, suit or proceeding in advance of its final disposition where the undertaking and determinations necessary for advancing expenses have been made) that the claimant has not met the standards of conduct which make it permissible for the Corporation to indemnify the claimant for the amount claimed.

Section 5.19. Advancing Expenses.

Expenses (including attorneys' fees) incurred by a person that may be indemnified under the provisions of this Article, in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding, may be paid by the Corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding upon receipt of:

(a) An undertaking by that person or on that person's behalf by an authorized representative to repay such amount if it shall ultimately be determined that he or she is not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as required in this Article or authorized by law;

(b) The person furnishes to the Corporation a written affirmation of his or her good faith belief that he or she has met the standard of conduct set forth in Sections 5.15 and 5.16 above, and;

(c) A determination is made that the facts then known to those making the determination under Section 5.18 above would not preclude indemnification as provided by this Article.

Section 5.20. Insurance Against Liability Asserted Against Directors, Officers, and Authorized Representatives.

The Corporation, whenever so authorized by the Board, may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any authorized representative (which, for the purposes of this Article shall mean a Director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, or a person who is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a Director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, person, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise) against any liability asserted against him or her and incurred by him or her in such capacity, or arising out of his or her status as such, whether or not the corporation would be authorized or required to indemnify him or her by law or this Article.

Section 5.21. Appeals to the Board of Directors.

Any General Member may appeal to the Board a decision made at the operational level. The Board is the final tribunal within the Corporation, and shall make its determinations in accordance with the policies and procedures adopted by the Board then in effect.
